

List of assignments

Assignment 1

Due Date: February 28

- Shoot a flip video (Possible choices - film two students or teachers talking about an activity or event; film yourself or a student describing an object, then film the object)
- Post your video recording to the group wiki:
<http://DigitalPortfolioWorkshop.wikispaces.com/>
- Look at three or more other colleagues' recordings on the group wiki and post a comment suggesting how this video might be used as a lesson assignment.

Assignment 2

Due Date: Posted in your wiki by March 15

- During the workshop you will collaborate with another teacher on a video that you intend to develop or find to teach Chinese language or culture proficiency
- With a colleague in the workshop begin to design a written/ oral/ or reading, cultural understanding assignment that includes video. The assignment would ask students to perform a pre-listening, listening and post-listening activity that would require them some kind of multi-modal response that could include image with text, video with text, etc.
- Post your completed assignment the shared group wiki so that all participants in workshop can see your work
- Comment on at least three of your colleague's assignments.
